Librarian's Report

- General
 - January was a busy month.
 - Website traffic has been steadily increasing.
- Library Programs
 - Tech classes continue to be offered Monday thru Thursday. Next class will be on how to use the Iphone for photography. A survey was sent out to get patron input on what should be adjusted within various classes.
 - There will be a reading of poetry and other works by Hilda Raz and Lyn C Miller.
 - The program featuring Rudy Miera reading from his novel "The Fall and Rise of Champagne Sanchez" was well attended and lasted until 7:30 after the library closed. Mr. Miera was a very expressive reader.
- FOCL news
 - FOCL may schedule the Spring sale to coincide with the Garden Tour.
 - There will be a fundraiser sponsored with Village Pizza on February 23rd. If you mention FOCL with your order, 25% of your order will be donated to FOCL.
- New Business

Carla reviewed the history of how the Long Range Plan has changed to a Strategic Plan. Carla shared info from other Strategic Plans. Board discussed Strategic Plan. Rita agreed to meet with Carla to help her work on the new plan.
